

Artur Osuchowski

He obtained a master's degree in Economics at the Private Higher School of Business and Administration (PWSBiA) in Warsaw (scholarship from KGHM).

Between April 2008 and November 2019, he sat on the Management Board of Ciech S.A. as its Member. Until May 2012, he was responsible for overseeing the operations of Ciech's Soda Division, subsequently for sales, business expansion on new markets and investor relations.

He gained his professional experience while working also at KPMG Advisory (2003-2008), Capgemini (2000-2002), Ernst & Young Corporate Finance (1997-2000), Raiffeisen Bank (1996-1997) and many more.

A Member of the Supervisory Board at Benefit Systems (WSE:BFT) (since June 2013), where he also serves as a Member of Audit Committee, and Mediacap (WSE: MCP) (since 2014).

He has vast experience as a supervisory board member, which he gained while working at private companies, such as Polskie Towarzystwo Ubezpieczeń S.A. (currently Gothaer Towarzystwo Ubezpieczeń S.A.), Soda Polska Ciech S.A., Uzinele Sodice Govora S.C., Soda Deutschland Ciech GmbH, Polsin (based in Singapore).

He won a scholarship awarded by Die Zeit magazine, American Council on Germany, Dreager Foundation.

His leisure activities include road cycling and snowboard.